SENATE.

A petition was presented by Mr. Hall, from citizens of New York, praying a decision of the question by Congress, whether slavery has con-stitutional existence in the Union.

The question of reception was raised by Mr.

the petition on the table. The year and nays were demanded on Mr. T.'s motion, and stood as follows-yeas 23, nays 7. So the motion to receive was laid on the table. The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Allen,

Mr. Allen said he should be opposed to giving the resolution such a direction, but would leave i to the judgment of the Senate to say whether it would thus refer it, or make it the special order for a future day.

Mr. Hale offered an amendment to the resolution, in the f llowing words: "And manifesting the sincerity of their purpose by the immediate emancipation of all slaves in their colonies." Mr. Calhoun thought action on the resolution at this time would be premature, and proceeded to give his reasons why the Senate ought to wait until the French Republic was fully established. and a number were presented, read a second time, and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

On motion of Mr. Smith of Indiana, the House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill to refund to the States moneys advanced to equip and transport volunteers to Mexico, &c. The various amendments offered to the bill were dis-cussed for two hours, when the committee rose and eported the bill and amendment to the House.

Mr. Pollock moved to recommit the bill to the committee on Military Affairs, with instructions; and the motion was agreed to.
On motion of Mr. Holtiard, the House again went into committee of the Whole [Mr. Cranson in the Chair] and took up the Oregon bill. Mr. Hilliard addressed the committee at much length. When he concluded, Mr. Harris, of Alabama, claimed the floor, but gave way to a motion that the committee rise, which was agreed to, and shortly afterwards the House adjourned. He was purchased much experience in the observation of the horse of that country, and numerous efforts to find an animal of the best blood and finest parts. He believes that he fully succeeded, as an extract from one of his letters, hereto appended, amply shows. It is deemed unnecessary to publish his Arabian pedigree in the original ortranslated form, as it would be unintelligible to most persons—but it can be seen by all those who are curious on such subjects.
